CLERK OF SUPERIOR COURT

FINAL JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

Upon consideration of this case based upon the evidence as provided by law, it is the judgment of the Court that a total divorce be granted, that is to say, a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, between the parties to the above stated case, upon legal principles.

It is considered, ordered, and decreed by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore entered between the parties to this case, from and after this date, be and is set aside and dissolved as fully and effectually as if no such contract had ever been made.

Plaintiff and Defendant in the future shall be held and considered as separate and distinct persons unconnected by any nuptial union or civil contract whatsoever. Both shall have the right to remarry.

The Defendant, Thomas Raymond McBerry, Jr., shall have sole legal and physical custody of Thomas Raymond McBerry, III.

The Plaintiff shall be entitled to visitation with the child on alternating Sundays from 1:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m., on the child's birthday for 3 hours, and on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day for 3 hours. All such visitation shall be under the supervision of the father at the residence of the father. The mother must give reasonable advance notice of these
